

Directory of History of Medicine Collections

Organization Name:	Thomas Fisher Rare Book Library University of Toronto
Organization Type:	Library
Address:	120 St. George Street
City:	Toronto
State/Province:	Ontario
Zip/Postal Code:	M6N 5C7
Country:	Canada
Telephone Number:	(416) 978-5285
Fax Number:	(416) 978-1667
Web Site:	http://www.library.utoronto.ca/fisher
Online Catalog:
Email Address:
Other:	http://link.library.utoronto.ca/anatomia/application/index.cfm
Abstract:	The Thomas Fisher Rare Book Library houses approximately 15,000 items in the history of medicine. These materials are for use in the library only. Limited photocopying is permitted. The library's particular strengths are in the history of anatomy, obstetrics and gynecology, pediatrics, dentistry, and psychoanalysis.
Holdings:	The Library holds approximately 15,000 items. About 10 incunables, many 16th century volumes, but no precise figures are available. Some manuscript material, including a number of Florence Nightingale's letters. Small collection of medical caricature prints.

Collection Subject Strengths:	History of Anatomy; History of Stomatology; History of Medicine; History of Nursing; History of Gynecology and Obstetrics; History of Pediatrics; History of Psychiatry; History of Psychology
Other Collection Subject Strengths:
Institution Contact:	Philip Oldfield
Title:	Librarian
Contact Email Address:	philip.oldfield@utoronto.ca
Contact Telephone Number:	(416) 946-3177
Your Name:	Philip Oldfield
Your Email Address:	philip.oldfield@utoronto.ca
Your Telephone Number:	(416) 946-3177